Miss Fannie McNutt arrived from her home Sunday, prepared to take charge of her part of the school that of state of Missouri against Seth Guthrie in which Guthrie was charged with a felonious assault opon one Frank Lovelady some time last winter. The parties live in the viornity of Kimsey school house and were at church one evening when some one struck Love-lady against the side of the head with a rock almost killing him. It was not known for sure who did it but Mr.

Guthrie was arrested and tried for the offense. Murphy prosecuted alone, while Judge Knowles and John W. Stokes defended, and the jury found a verdict of fended, and the jury found a verdict of acquittal.

Another criminal case tried was that of state vs. Jack Hart, Walter Limp, Burt Cass, Joseph Mitchell and Tom Gooden. This case came up from Forest City and was instituted by C. M. Mosher, of Hotel Mosher, charging the defendants, who are all young man, (one of them colored) with having distarbed the peace of Mr. Mosher and his family by shooting roman candles, fire-crackers, etc., around the hotel during the night time, a few weeks ago. Stokes helped Murphy prosecute and Keonish and O'Fallon defended. The jury found a verdict of not guilty. -Hamp Price has retired from Lee and O'Fallon defended. The jury found a verdict of not guilty.

Another civil case tried was that of Ulysses Radge vs. W. L. Proctor. This case came up from Forbes township and was tried last winter before 'Squire W. W. Price, with a jury and appealed to the circuit court. Proctor is a well-te-do farmer and lives with his mother, his brother, John, and his sister, Ann, all asone family upon a splendid farm on the Missouri river bottom. Bidge came to live with them intending to crop on the farm the next year. He stayed about the farm and worked some occasionally for about four months when some disagreement arose and he left, whereupon agreement arose and he left, whereupon he brought suit for pay for what work he did while on the place. The suit was brought against W. L. Proctor alone instead of against all the family, and said W. L.
